In response to numerous requests the submission deadline has been extended to Jan 15, 2010.

In 2010 ICCS celebrates its 10th anniversary in Amsterdam. For this great event we will have an impressive list of world leading keynote speakers to give their vision on Computational Science now and in the future:

Stephen Wolfram, Seth Lloyd, Anton Zeilinger,
Peter Hunter, László Barabási and Ed Seidel

You are invited to submit a paper with unpublished original work for ICCS 2010.

You can submit to the main conference or one of our many workshops. All accepted papers will appear in the proceedings.

Please, see <http://www.iccs-meeting.org/> for more information, including information on our outstanding workshops.

The ICCS 2010 Proceedings will be published by Elsevier in the Procedia Computer Science open-access series and on CD. In addition selected papers will be published in various peer reviewed Journals.
